🐃 AO 472 (Rev. 12/03) Order of Detention Pending Trial

the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence appreparation.			UNITED ST	TATES DISTRI	ICT COURT
NATTHEW PALMER, Case Number: 08-45-UNA Defendant In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Part I—Findings of Fact				District of	DELAWARE
MATTHEW PALMER, Case Number: 08-45-UNA Defendant			UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal purisdiction had existed - that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense that would have been a federal offense is life imprisonment or death, an offense for which a maximum sentence is life imprisonment of death, an offense for which a maximum sentence is life imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in an offense for which a maximum sentence is life imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in an offense for which a maximum sentence is life imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in an offense for which a maximum sentence is life imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in an offense for which a maximum sentence is life imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in an offense for the offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. and offense for the offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1) was committed an offense (1) of the offense described in finding (1) was committed an offense (2) of the offense described in finding (1) was committed an offense (2) of the offense described in finding (1) was committed an offense (2) of the offense of the offense of the offense of the offense			v.	ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case. Q1 The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) and has been convicted of a dederal offense state or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).				Case Number: 08-45-UNA
Part I—Findings of Fact
(1) The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(N(1)) and has been convicted of a federal offense state or local offense that would have been a federal offense of since in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of teny cars or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offenses. § 3142(N(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. § 3142(N(1	dete		n of the defendant pending trial in this case.
or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a crime of violence as defined in Is U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death. an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in IB U.S.C. § 3142(ft)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. [2] The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. [3] A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. [4] Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) [5] A term of the offense described in finding (1). [6] A term of the offense described in finding (1). [7] A term of the offense described in finding (1). [8] A period of not more than five years are noted in the offense of the off		/13
a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(D1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. 2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. 3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. 4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) 4) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense 5 of which a was been been been been been been been bee	Ш	(1)	or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed - that is a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).
a a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. 2 The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). 4 Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which fire a state of the presumption established by finding I that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) 1 There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. 2 There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention 1 Find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that 1 Find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that 1 Find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that 1 Find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence that 1
$ 3142(01)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. 2 The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. 3 A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). 4 Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a substantial for imprisonment of the years or more is provided in a fortification. The foreign of the defendant has required and the safety of the community. X (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) 1 There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. 2 There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part III—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention 1 find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by limited and present and the present of the evidence that The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption than to combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant has could reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United Stat			an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of fen years or more is prescribed in*
(2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A)			a felony that was committed after the defendant	nt had been convicted of two	or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C.
for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A) (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for encir fine them of imprisonness to be year or more jets particular. (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention Hind that the eredible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence are preponderance of the evidence that The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant wived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be affor	(2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or lease
(4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption. Alternative Findings (A)					ion Telease of the defendant from imprisonment
X (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense		(4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the
Carrier of interest that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Carrier of the defendant has not rebuted the presumption established by findings (B) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.				Alternative Findings (A)
X (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community. Alternative Findings (B) (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear. (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community. Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention Ifind that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence appearance of the evidence that The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an	X	(1)
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by derance of the evidence that The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the	X	the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence apreponderance of the evidence that The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the	(2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the			Part II—Writt	en Statement of Reason	s for Detention
The Defendant is charged in a fourteen-count indictment with receipt, attempted distribution, and possession of child pornography; and receipt and attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the	_	I fin	nd that the eredible testimony and information submi	itted at the hearing establish	es by clear and convincing evidence a prepon attempted distribution of obscene material. The Defendant waived his right to contest pretrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of the Probation Office, the Court finds that the Defendant has failed to rebut the statutory presumption that no combination of conditions could reasonably assure the safety of the community between now and the time of trial and that the Defendant would appear for all Court events in this matter. Part III—Directions Regarding Detention The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the	-der	ance .	of the evidence that
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the	atte the reas	mpte Proba sonab	ed distribution of obscene material. The Defendant value of the Court finds that the Defendant has	waived his right to contest pr failed to rebut the statutory	retrial detention. Based on the indictment and the report of presumption that no combination of conditions could
The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the			ъ . ш	D'andiana Daniel III. I	N. 4. 4
Tovernment, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance	reas	he ex sonab	defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney stent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving ole opportunity for private consultation with defense	General or his designated re sentences or being held in or e counsel. On order of a co	presentative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a ourt of the United States or on request of an attorney for the
in connection with a court proceeding.				1
MARCH 20 TH , 2008				4.1-6
Date Signature of Judge How I convert B. Stock II S. Magistrata Judge			Date	V -	Signature of Judge
Hon. Leonard P. Stark U.S. Magistrate Judge Name and Title of Judge

^{*}Insert as applicable: (a) Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 801 et seq.); (b) Controlled Substances Import and Export Act (21 U.S.C. § 951 et seq.); or (c) Section 1 of Act of Sept. 15, 1980 (21 U.S.C. § 955a).